

UGMSTUDIO

TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

1. Artists and producers are eligible to apply to the 2015 summer call if they have not exhibited at the UGM | Maribor Art Gallery in the last three years and if the project they are applying with have not yet been presented in Maribor.

2. UGM offers the following for the exhibition at UGM Studio:

- gallery venue for the duration of the exhibition including all running costs,
- exhibition security,
- basic technical assistance in setting up the pre-prepared and/or technically planned project,
- rental of technical equipment (if available),
- promotion of the exhibition,
- design and distribution of e-invites prepared in co-operation with the producer,
- exhibition opening with small reception (including refreshments),
- education programme for children and adults in accordance with UGM guidelines,
- production funds in the amount of EUR 900 (gross)

3. The applicants will be informed of the selection results within 20 days after the submission deadline. Collaboration between the applicant and UGM begins upon signing a contract after the project has been selected. Due to the above listed contribution on behalf of UGM towards the realisation of the selected project, the relationship between the applicant and UGM is defined as a co-production.

4. The duration of the exhibition should not exceed the period of three to four weeks. The proposed date and duration of the project represents the approximate time frame which will be considered by the jury when planning the programme, but will not be binding in any way.

5. By submitting the application the applicant accepts these terms of co-operation and will adhere to them during the process of project realisation.

6. We reserve the right to reject incomplete applications without additional explanation.
